ADJUDICATION

1. A jury panel will be formed consisting of the Department Head, the Principal to act as a neutral juror, and (if possible) one other department Faculty member.
2. Jurors may choose to hear each work in its entirety or only selections from each
3. The performer will begin with his/her choice
4. One photocopy or original of the score being performed (i.e. include any accompaniment part) must be provided for the jury
5. Candidates will be judged based on presentation, interpretation, technique and musicianship, and selection.
6. The decision of the jury is final.
7. If no candidates are judged to be of sufficient calibre for an award, no award will be given.

NOTIFICATION OF AWARDS

Candidates will receive notification of their results through official letter. All results and juror comments will be forwarded to each candidate's private teacher first and then the teacher will distribute to the students.

PAYMENT OF THE AWARD

All award winners are expected to perform at the annual Student Honours Concert as a condition of their award. The concert will be held at the Chilliwack Academy of Music on Saturday, May 26 at 1:00 pm. If a candidate cannot attend the concert, special permission must be obtained in writing from the Principal in order to receive the scholarship award. Awards will be applied toward private instruction at the Chilliwack Academy of Music for use in the next academic year.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Application deadline is 4:30 p.m. April 1 of each year. (If the 1st falls on a weekend, the application is due the following Monday).
2. Applications received after this deadline will not be considered.
3. Application forms are available through the Chilliwack Academy of Music office, or online at www.chilliwackmusic.com.
4. Completed applications must be submitted to: Chilliwack Academy of Music, Attn: Scholarships, 9201 Corbould St., Chilliwack BC, V2P 4A6

ACCOMPANIST

Competitors may provide their own accompanist. If an accompanist is required, one will be provided free of charge including one rehearsal, provided all of the following conditions are met:

1. The appropriate box is checked on the application form
2. Photocopies of all applicable selections are attached to the application form
3. The competitor contacts the accompanist to arrange a rehearsal at least two weeks prior to the competition date. The accompanist's contact information will be included with the confirmation the competitor will receive regarding his/her audition time.

Note: The cost of any additional rehearsals is the responsibility of the competitor.
